"I was a "Little" 40 years ago and I always knew that I would be a "Big" myself when the time was right in my life. That happened when I was matched with Rosalee. She was eager to try new things and very quickly came out of her shell, going from a girl that would hide behind my leg when she met someone new to shaking hands and saying "nice to meet you." . I continue to be amazed by her strength and tenacity." - Kelly

MENTORING MATTERS... HERE'S WHY!

Big Brothers Big Sisters provides supportive adult mentors to kids who need someone the most. Every day, youth in our community face challenges like bullying, isolation, poverty, social anxiety, low self-esteem, disabilities and more. Our caseworkers match children and youth (ages 5 to 16) with mentors who help them overcome adversities, make healthy choices and ultimately reach their full potential. Your investment in Big Brothers Big Sisters supports the creation and continuation of mentoring matches over one year.

OUR MATCHES...

When Everett and his family moved to Fredericton, he didn't adjust well to the move. After the match, there was a dramatic change in him. Having us as mentors made a huge life-change manageable for him. Occasionally, we can directly see that we are helping Everett to develop. During one visit, we were watching him develop right before our eyes: cognitively, emotionally, and physically, while learning to climb a fireman pole. It was exciting. As Mike says, "Everett breathes life into everything that we do together." In fact, he breathes life into our world.

TOGETHER WE CAN IGNITE MORE POTENTIAL

I was nine, going on ten, when I met Anita. At that point in my life, I had said goodbye to many people. This was one person I would never have to say goodbye to. I had finally found someone who liked me for me. I got a happily ever after — not a castle and a Prince Charming, but something much better: a lifelong friendship with an incredible, giving woman. I have thirty-five years and counting of learning, laughing, sharing, and bonding with a woman who always sees and loves the real me. I got a Big Sister that day. I have truly been blessed. The one constant in my life is, and always will be, Anita.
